43. Objectives

The objectives of this organisation are:

- (1) To facilitate the sharing of information on vaccination and related topics among members. In this respect, without limiting the source or content of the information, and in recognition of the fact that information which is critical of vaccination is typically not as readily shared by mainstream sources as that which is supportive, to seek to provide balance by actively facilitating the sharing of information which has not been disseminated by popular mainstream information services, but which may be of interest to members.
- (2) To facilitate the discussion of vaccination and related topics among members, including the sharing of personal or family experiences, with a particular emphasis on respect and tolerance for all points of view.
- (3) To encourage members and supporters to seek information on vaccination and related topics from a variety of sources and viewpoints.

- (4) To encourage and facilitate among members the critical evaluation, from a consumer perspective, of mainstream advice and opinion on vaccination and related topics.
- (5) To uphold the principle of 'informed choice' on vaccination and related topics, and to promote respect for the right of each individual (members and non-members) to make such choice.
- (6) To represent members' questions, concerns, and grievances, with respect to vaccination and related topics, to appropriate bodies outside of the organisation.
- (7) To campaign for the right of members to make informed choices regarding vaccination and related topics, and act on those choices without fear of persecution, discrimination or disadvantage.
- (8) To build relationships and exchange information with individuals and organisations involved with vaccination and related topics.
